

MY-BREEZE

Vol. 15, Issue No. 9

Brecksville, Ohio

March 14, 1958

ARTISTS PLACE IN EXHIBITION

Brecksville High School was honored by having five entries accepted in the National Scholastic Art exhibition.

6,000 pieces of select work from Ashtabula, Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, and Trumbull counties were submitted and judged. A small per cent of these works were selected for the Halls exhibit.

Tom Werle's China poster, took top honors by receiving one of the few key awards.

Larry Cynar and Joe Hruby both placed with tempera paintings. Freshman: Carolyn Soucek and Gerda Priehn placed in the Junior High division; Carolyn with a tempera painting and Gerda with a water-color.

UNPETIT POEME

La classe de français, février 26. (après le
français fracture de l' édition de février 25)
Nous célébrons
Notre grande saison
Du jeu de ballon.
Nous bien espérons
Que par maintenant
Nous ne finissons
Pas!
Mais si nous avons,
Nous encore louerons,
nos hommes,
Qui sont très bons!

SUNDAY COSTS FIVE PESOS

DRAMATICS CLUB ASSEMBLY PLAY

"...and if you ever come back again I shall scratch out both your eyes," these were the words Berto, played by Barb Schaal, shouted at Celestina, Marilyn Peters, in "Sunday Costs 5 Pesos," a comedy written by Josephine Niggle.

It was presented at an assembly February 28, by the Dramatics Club under the direction of Miss Lois Tilton.

The play told of the romance between Fidel, Doug Cibik, and Berto and how they almost broke up because of Berto's well-meaning neighbors, Salome and Tonia, played by Barb Russell and Eve Fernengle, and Celestina, who liked Fidel, too.

The play's plot revolves around the fine of 5 pesos, $2.50, on anyone who started a fight on Sunday.

At the end, Fidel and Berto make up with plans of marriage.

The play lasted about 40 minutes, and everyone seemed to enjoy it.

Congratulations to the cast, director, and stage crew: Dennis O'Braitis, Don Prihodoff, Art Miller, Alec Morrison, and Dick Amos for turning out a really great play.

SENIORS PLACE IN DISTRICT

The ratings on the January 10 scholarship tests that were taken here are as follows: the top four who ranked in the top 10% of the Kent State District were Jim Dudl, Bill Slama, Dave Liebchen, and Peg Hopkins.

The top 25% of the county also won honorable mentions. Those from Brecksville are Fred Cochran, John Cook, Wayne Evert, Anita Hartman, Joan Kusta, Martha Rice, Bob Sielaty, and Roger Studley.

SENIOR TAKES POSTER PRIZE

First prize winners of the Bond Issue Poster Contest which were recently judged were Gloria Smagola a senior, in the senior division, and Jim Morris in the freshmen division. They received $5 each.

Second prize winners were Joe Hruby, a senior, in the senior division and Don Hinkey in the freshman division receiving $3 each.

Third prize winners were Sherry Schroeder, a junior in the senior division and Sharon Hobart in the freshmen division receiving $2 each.

The judges of the contest were Mr. Tony Nosek, chairman, Mrs. Dostal, and Mrs. Lister.

Y-Teen

Dawn Boyle and Sherril Schroeder have been chosen by Y-Teen to represent Brecksville at the Y-Teen fashion show in April. The girls will model at Halle's Southland store.

Also on Y-Teens' spring program is roller skating, at Berea in March, and swimming at the Y.W.C.A.

JUNIOR JIVE

A real bang-up time was had by juniors, tobogganing during the which needed two days rest from school. Find your togagan, Nancy?

Ray Orley and Paulette Maier will be taking part in the play, "Tea House of the August Moon", that the Little Theater is putting on.

Did anyone see the "Hello Ed", "Hi Doll?" signs in the cafeteria? (wonder who wrote them?)

The Junior Class is very proud of Roger Anderson's picture that is now in the hall.

Ms. Mercer has given up with the girls in his homeroom; they just never co-operate.

SENSATIONAL SENIORS

Seniors are too busy studying to spend much time having parties, etc. so there isn't too much to report.

It's too bad that Bill Watson couldn't play in the tournaments, especially since he is a senior. Bill had bronchitis and had to stay in bed the whole weekend. He couldn't even watch the game! Tough luck, Bill!

Seniors have chosen their Commencement announcements already. The beginning of the end, so to speak. A general poll of seniors seems to indicate that they are not particularly anticipating graduation, for it will mean the end of many close friendships when we go out separate ways to college and the business world.

SOPHOMORE

STUFF

The Sophomores are buzzing about:

The Varsity and Jr. Varsity players who did such a fine job on the team---our new emblems--- Barb Schaal's wonderful lead role as the hot-tempered Spanish miss in the Dramatic Club's one-act play---the sunshine and sandy beaches being enjoyed by Phyllis Witkowski and her family in Florida. Noel Werle, who received a 1 rating in a recent musical contest---the current slump of the GAA team (remember, girls, lag and resignation does not make a champion) --- Sherlock

Here is the part you've been waiting for---the juicy gossip about some poor, unsuspecting senior. This week's victim is wicked Tom Black. His secret passion is a motor boat. (Bet ya thought it was going to be something else, Hih?) He is planning a nice, long, boat trip this summer in his 15 ft. craft. Don't get lost, Tom!

I guess there isn't any doubt about which class has the most enthusiasm and the strongest lungs---that terrific roar you heard at the last pep rally was supplied by the illustrious class of "58".

Commencement, which has been changed to June 10, instead of June 9, will be held here at Brecksville. The speaker will be Rev. Hall, from East Cleveland. Because of Brecksville's limited space, other buildings were being considered as prospective sites for commencement.

The senior class extends its deepest sympathy to Nancy Musselman whose mother died recently after a long illness.

Holmes and his band of butchers who broke up the pep rally---the girls in health class who are all wrapped up---ouch! gently with that splint!---the May Dance which is rapidly approaching---a history teacher who has an unusual fondness for the name "knucklehead" (%) --- Mr. Pastor, who has the magic key to Mr. Cumming's homeroom, and who is anxious to see his name in print!

COMPARISONS TO BEEKEEPERS BOYS

BEES ROUT BEARS

13 in row!

The mighty Bees kept up one of the best winning streaks in the District by trouncing the Bears of Royalton, 62-36. The game was close all the way through the first half. When the Bears came out in the second half, they were still hopeful; but as the game progressed, the Champs got their old polish back and really started pouring it on way out of the Bears reach.

The scoring honors went to Phil Street of Brecksville and Bob Leskis of Royalton with 15 and 24 respectively.

Again congratulations to Mister Becker and the Boys on a great season from the student body and everyone connected with your paper.

NOTE TO PARENTS

The next meeting of the P.T.A. will be March 20 with Mrs. Ruth Rice, Home Ec. teacher, in charge. The topic discussed will be "Extra Cirricular Activities."

This will show the parents the functions of B. H. S. clubs.

Some of Bee'ville club will demonstrate their activities, while others will explain their clubs.

STAFF BUZZES

The annuals are now being completed and will be sent to the manufacturer on March 25 so they should be here by June. There is going to be a supplement copy of the annual that will come out in the summer so that there will be pictures of the prom and graduation.

FROSH

Hurray for the Freshmen in G.A.A. We won our first G.A.A. game Friday in basketball. We defeated the sophomores with a score of 13 to 11.

What happened to the Freshmen at the last Pep Rally??? Freshemen have the largest class and should have the loudest cheering section.

MAYFLOWER

RECREATED

Have you seen the tempero painting of the Mayflower ship, in the hall near the cafeteria? It was painted by Roger Anderson, a junior, copies from a 2 by 3 in. card of a ship, taking 15 hours to produce.

"This particular painting is by far the best Roger has done in class," according to Alvin Stauffer, art teacher.

He feels that the painting could have won a prize at the Scholastics Art Show, but this year the judges will not allow any copies to enter.

"Thanks to Mr. Stauffer this school is producing better artists," said Gloria Smagola, one of his art students.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

The Junior High Dance was a big success. Quite a few kids attended. Keep up the school and class spirit kids.

Have you seen the seventh-graders term papers? They had to write a paper on where in the world they would most like to go. Many places were mentioned for many reasons. One girl was inspired to want to visit Siam after she saw the movie, "The King and I."

The seventh and eighth-graders are also working on book reports. They must make six a year. The reports count one-fourth of their grade. The purpose is to get the students to read better and to learn to enjoy reading.

Sorry to hear about Terry Zedan and his broken arm. Hope you're feeling better real soon. From now on, don't walk on the wrong side of the road.

Jr. High Intramurals are going strong. Mr. Poppek is advisor and he reported that, "We're all having a grand time." The boys are competing among themselves in sports. They are currently playing basketball.

TWELVE AROUND THE WORLD

Remember Seventeenth Summer, Maureen Daly's popular teen-age book?

Our school library has purchased a new book of Miss Daly's entitled Twelve around the World. The story concerns the lives of twelve teen-agers from a dozen countries.

The girls in Brecksville High's wood working class, according to Mr. Becker, are doing quite well. They do as good as the boys. They also seem to have a lot of interest in their work. So far there have been no accidents. The shop safety rules are stressed more with the girls than the boys. Some of the girls were doubtful at first, but have gained a lot of confidence and think it is a lot of fun.

MAIER COMPETES IN COLUMBUS

Brecksville High School will be represented by Paulette Maier at the state speech contest on March 21 and 22, at Columbus. She is entering in the Girls' Extemporaneous division of the contest.

Paulette placed third among 21 other girls in the "Extemp." division of the district contest held February 22, at Magnificat High School. The contestants represented schools in northeastern Ohio.

In addition, Paulette brought a first place trophy to Brecksville by her success February 15, at Euclid High School.

Each contestant drew three topics at random and prepared a five to seven minute speech on the topics of her choice during a half-hour of allotted time. Paulette spoke on the topics, "Will there be a trip to space in the near future?" and "Has John Foster Dullas been a hinderance to foreign policy?" The topics were taken from leading news magazines.

G. A. A.

"Aim! Aim! Aim!" is what the girls have been shouting for the last few weeks in G. A. A. Basketball season is on its way. The Seniors and Juniors have each won four games, while the Sophomores and Freshman have won only one each.

While Basketball has been the sport in G. A. A. the girls' gym classes have been competing in Badminton. The class winners now stand as follows;

Seniors

Doubles: Marth Rice and Barbara Russell

Singles: Barbara Russell

Juniors

Doubles: Karen Schmidt and Connie Materwicz

Singles: Nancy Young

Sophomores

Doubles: Rosemary Conners and Gretchen Gentile

Singles: Bette Scott

Freshmen

7th Period: Doubles: Jill Street and Joanne Vlasak

Singles: Judy Bream

8th Period Doubles: Charlotte Slifko and Kathy Pilarczyk

Singles: Irene Najmulski

JOKES

Question: Why did the moron take hay with him to bed?

Answer: He wanted to feed his nightmare.

Grandma: I like to go to bed and get up with the chickens, don't you?

Susie: No, I like to sleep in my own bed.
